Seung Min ho

“My profitability started off really slow at the start, but all it took was for me to send my traffic to the right areas and terminations of the globe internationally, my earnings shot up substantially & I can now live on my earnings”

Sharenjit

Ilford, Greater London

“Premium rate number business is what I live for. I never thought my profitability would equal the same amount, then surpass the amount of the job I already have. I got a good deal in payout terms to one particular country and I brought traffic to that destination earning me good revenue”

Mena

Brisbane Australia

“I found Mediatel give higher payouts than most carriers of their tier. I found after a trusting relationship developed with one of the account managers I was entitled to even higher payouts.

Ahmadeep

Bombay, India

“I wanted a good payment cycle and I found it with Mediatel.”

The greatness of running a Premium Rate Number business is that once you get in the fast lane and your advertising is set up, you can then just relax in bliss as the calls bring in your revenue. This is a business, with people often calling your premium rate number lines 24 hours a day, so you can quite literally earn money while you sleep.
